

MODEL of the TEMPLE at PARIS,

WITH ITS VARIOUS BUILDINGS, AND THE TOWER IN WHICH THE KING, QUEEN, and ROYAL FAMILY of FRANCE,

Have been imprisoned since the 13th of August.

THE interest which the cruel destiny of the unfortunate ROYAL FAMILY of FRANCE inspires in England, and throughout all Europe, has given the idea to several English persons, of having a Model made, of the Temple, the Tower, and adjacent Buildings, which, after considerable expence and risques, they are enabled to do in a manner that they hope will satisfy the curiosity of the Public.

This Model represents with great accuracy of detail, that Prison which now confines those Personages formerly so powerful, and at present so miserable, and who exhibit to the world so shocking and great an example of the instability of Human Grandeur. The comparison which so naturally suggests itself between that spirit of faction and ferocity, which in FRANCE have hurried from a brilliant Throne, a King so remarkable for his goodness and love for his People, and that spirit of Loyalty and Affection which in spite of factions manifest themselves in this happy country towards our King and Royal Family, will make us still more cherish a Constitution which renders us so happy under the reign of our ILLUSTRIOUS SOVEREIGN.

It is hoped, that this Model will meet with the approbation of the Public, as it already has of those Persons, who, from a knowledge of the place, and of such works, are enabled to judge.

To be seen every day, (Sundays excepted) from ten o'Clock in the Morning, till ten at Night, in Rupert-street, No.1, Corner of Coventry-street, Hay-Market.

Admittance One Shilling each Person.

N. B. A printed detail of the particular manner in which their Majesties are treated, &c, is given to all those who see the Model.
